

GB Corp — fair value at a glance (refresh of 19 August 2026)

Last library close (22-Jul-26)	31.31
Fair value — bear	19.88
Fair value — base (round mark)	33.56
Central under the balance-sheet mark	28.66
Fair value — bull	44.60
MNT-Halan gap per share (round vs book, post-discount)	12.23
Terminal share of automotive enterprise value	85.0%
H1-26 group revenue (+35.2%)	48,474.4
H1-26 group net profit (−24.5%)	1,262.0
Automotive net debt 30-Jun-26 (2.14x EBITDA)	14,493.6

The July study's published range was 23.3 / 35.7 / 51. This refresh re-built the model bottom-up on the first-half accounts and made the terminal value pay for its growth.

The whole gap between the two columns is one judgement about one stake. The reviewer could not verify the carrying value (qualified conclusion, second period); the round is real bank-led money but a first close. Neither is averaged away — the study carries both to the end.

FY27E unit costs carry each class's escalator against its price once (the measured compression year); from FY28E cost moves with price — held flat both directions. Trading FY27E divides out its price growth and carries the 1.04 inventory-reset. 'n/d' = the subtype split is not disclosed for that year.
